FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oshawa Public Libraries Presents the 15th Annual Heritage Showcase

Oshawa Public Libraries, McLaughlin Branch, April 23, 2016, 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM

Celebrate Durham Region's rich culture at the 15th Annual Heritage Showcase.

This year, we're taking a spin to the history of the automotive industry, honouring the 140th anniversary of McLaughlin Carriage Company's opening, and learning how Oshawa became known as Canada's Motor City.

Take advantage of this opportunity to visit with some of our Heritage Partners such as museums, historical and genealogical societies. The Ontario Regiment Museum will also be onsite with a military radio truck, originally built by General Motors for WWII, complete with a working field radio! Additional special guests include:

- Lisa Terech from Oshawa Community Museum
- Alexander Gates of Canadian Automotive Museum
- Parkwood Estate
- Sher Leetooze, author

The Heritage Showcase will be held in the McLaughlin Branch Auditorium of Oshawa Public Libraries, 65 Bagot St., Oshawa, from 10 am until 3 pm.
