FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oshawa Public Libraries Hosts First - Ever OPL FanCon

McLaughlin Branch, Auditorium, Oshawa, October 15th, 2016 11 am – 3 pm

During the Starships and Sorcery: A Sci-Fi/Fantasy Festival, Oshawa Public Libraries hosting its first-ever FanCon in partnership with the Teen Advisory Board on October 15th, from 11 am – 3 pm in the McLaughlin Branch Auditorium.

At FanCon, guests can visit interactive booths and vendors, enter to win prizes, and pose for out of this world photos. There will also be a retro gaming area as well as a green screen to take customized photos. Special guests such as the Dr. Who Society of Canada will be bringing the Dalek for guests to look at and explore, with more vendors to be announced.

FanCon is a free, all-ages event and we encourage participants to dress up as their favourite characters, keeping all costumes PG-13.

During the event, attendees can post their photos on Twitter and the newly launched Instagram using the hashtag #SciFiFanFest to be featured and reposted on Oshawa Libraries accounts.
