FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oshawa Public Libraries Introduces the Community Volunteer Income Tax Program

Oshawa Public Libraries, March-April, 2017

Oshawa Public Libraries is pleased to announce that it will be hosting tax preparation clinics again this year in partnership with the Community Volunteer Income Tax Program and the Canada Revenue Agency in March and April, 2017.

During the months of March and April, eligible individuals may book an appointment at the McLaughlin and Jess Hann Branches to have their 2016 taxes prepared by a qualified volunteer, free of charge.

“The Library recognizes that this valuable service provides equal access to those who need support and may be missing out on important tax credits and benefits.” says Oshawa Public Libraries CEO Frances Newman.

This program is aimed towards individuals who meet the eligibility requirements, have a modest income, and a simple tax situation.
