

Dystopian Society Novels

(Ages 12-18)

MATCHED

By Ally Condie

Cassia has always trusted the Society to make the right choices for her, including her perfect match. But a glitch at her Matching ceremony leaves her questioning the Society and falling for someone else.

THE HOUSE OF THE SCORPION

By Nancy Farmer

In a future where humans despise clones, Matt enjoys special status as the young clone of El Patrón, the 142-year-old leader of a corrupt drug empire nestled between Mexico and the United States.

SALT

By Maurice Gee

Hari is determined to rescue his father from Deep Salt. Peel is fleeing an arranged marriage. Both are hiding mysterious abilities, and their paths cross as they plunge into the secrets of Deep Salt.

THE IRON THORN

By Caitlin Kittredge

Coming from a family where her mother and brother have gone mad on their sixteenth birthdays, Aoife tries to fight her fate in a city ruled by the Proctors and haunted by strange beasts.

THE GOODNESS GENE

By Sonia Levitin

Will questions his society which values genetic fitness above all else and removes those who do not fit in the perfect world Will's father has created.

NOUGHTS AND CROSSES

By Malorie Blackman

A Romeo and Juliet style romance in which Sephy, a ruling Cross, and Callum, an inferior Nought, fall in love.

THE SILENCED

By James DeVita

In a heavily supervised and restricted society, Marena decides to fight back against the Zero Tolerance party and forms a resistance group – The White Rose.

INCARCERON

By Catherine Fisher

Finn, trapped in a prison that is very much alive, and Claudia, a warden's daughter on the outside, find matching keys that allow them to talk to each other and plot escape.

JACOB'S LADDER

By Brian Keay

Jacob awakes in a field knowing nothing but his name. When he ventures to a nearby village, he realizes everyone there is suffering from amnesia too.

SHARP NORTH

By Patrick Cave

Mira lives in a quiet rural society until she sees a woman murdered and finds a list of names that make her increasingly suspicious that things are not as they seem.