

Ghost Books

(Ages 12-18)

WALK OF THE SPIRITS

By Richie Cusick

After moving to a new town, Miranda begins to suspect that she has inherited her grandfather's ability of communicating with spirits.

BAD GIRLS DON'T DIE

By Katie Alender

Alexis's younger sister starts acting strange as odd occurrences pile up in their old house.

DEAD CONNECTION

By Charles Price

Murray, a loner, can hear the dead. But when he communes with a murdered cheerleader, he teams up with the graveyard caretaker's daughter to bring a killer to justice.

THE WISH LIST

By Eoin Colfer

Meg botches a robbery and winds up dead. But with her soul perfectly balanced between good and evil she's sent to earth to help the man she tried to rob and redeem herself.

GHOST OF A CHANCE

By Laura Peyton Roberts

Melissa meets – and falls hard for – the hot ghost James haunting her best friend Chloe's house. But it looks like James might be more interested in Chloe than Melissa.

JADE GREEN

By Phyllis Reynolds Taylor

After her mother dies in a madhouse, Judith disobeys her uncle's rule of not bringing anything green into his house and unleashes a terrible force.

A CERTAIN SLANT OF LIGHT

By Laura Whitcomb

Helen, a ghost, possesses a young girl in order to be with a boy who's the first to see her in 130 years.

THE MEDIATOR: SHADOWLAND

By Meg Cabot

Suze is a mediator – a liaison between the living and the dead – who just wants a normal life. But a hot ghost haunting her room and a ghost with revenge in mind make normal impossible.

PEMBA'S SONG

By Marilyn Nelson & Tonya Hegamin

The lives of Pemba, a modern day girl who's just moved, and Phyllis, an 18th century slave girl, become intertwined.

THE SUMMONING

By Kelley Armstrong

Chloe Saunders used to have a normal life. That is before she started seeing ghosts, was locked up in a group home, and discovered she might not be the only one there with powers.