

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE & CLEAN READS

(Ages 12-18)

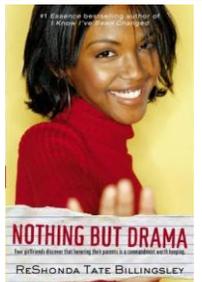

THE CHESTNUT HILL CAPER (STORIES)

By John Barnard
Many small gold mines exist in Northern Ontario, which is where Charlie Tempest finds not only surprises in the surveying business, but someone who steals his heart.

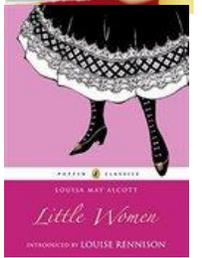

IRELAND

By Melody Carlson
Maddie sets off for Ireland with her aunt and uncle, as well as their godson Ryan. While there she becomes closer to Ryan and helps him solve the mystery surrounding his father's death.

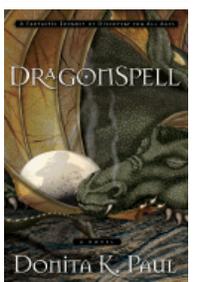

NOTHING BUT DRAMA

By ReShonda Tate Billingsley
After hiding her boyfriend from the police, Camille is forced to join a church youth group where she soon becomes friends with three other girls.

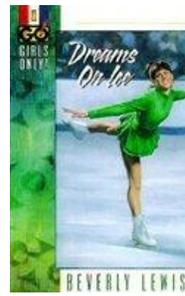

LITTLE WOMEN

By Louisa May Alcott
In this classic novel, four sisters grow up together in the civil war and pursue life and love while remaining a family.

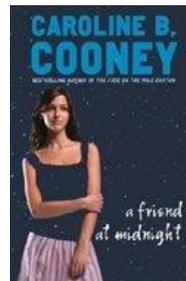

DRAGONSPELL

By Donita K. Paul
Once a slave, Kale enters the wizard Paladin's service and faces her first task – rescuing a valuable dragon egg from the clutches of the evil wizard Risto.

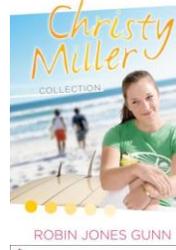

DREAMS ON ICE

By Beverly Lewis
Olivia Hudson is forced to leave her Chicago skating buddies when her newly widowed father takes a position in Alpine Lake, Colorado. But her apprehension turns to delight when she learns of the Olympic-sized skating rink near their new home.

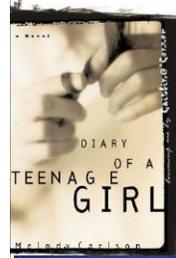

A FRIEND AT MIDNIGHT

By Caroline B. Cooney
When Lily's brother calls from the Baltimore airport, she finds her faith tested as she sets out to rescue him... and herself.

SUMMER PROMISE

By Robin Jones Gunn
Christy is spending the summer at her aunt and uncle's in California. There she meets Todd, a cute surfer, and finds herself drawing closer to God.

BECOMING ME

By Melody Carlson
In a fictional diary, Caitlin O'Connor details her life and the challenges she faces growing up while grappling with her spirituality.

THE LION, THE WITCH, AND THE WARDROBE

By C.S. Lewis
Four siblings enter a magical wardrobe and find themselves in the world of Narnia. There they soon learn they must band together if they are to help free Narnia from the White Witch.