

General Fantasy (Ages 12-18)

The Edge of the World

By Kevin J. Anderson

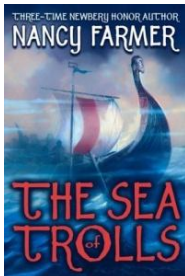

Two nations at war, fighting for dominion over the known and undiscovered world, pin their last hopes at ultimate victory on finding a land out of legend.

The Naming

By Alison Croggon

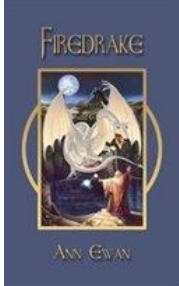

The story of a young girl who learns she possesses an uncanny gift - and is destined to use it to save her world from a terrifying evil.

Sea of Trolls

By Nancy Farmer

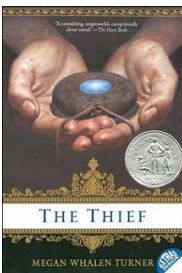

Swept up in the world of the vikings, Jack is enslaved to Olaf One-Brow and becomes entangled with a crow, shape-shifting trolls, a giant spider, and more.

The Firedrake

By Ann Ewan

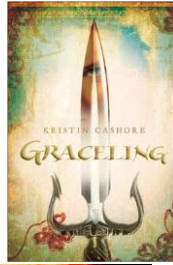

Shan, a girl with poor vision, teams up with a madman (a handsome but rather depressed warrior) and a wizard (a well-intentioned but ineffective magician) to vanquish the firedrake and save her people.

The Thief

By Megan Turner

Gen, an accomplished thief, is released from prison by the King's magus to steal a stone dipped in the waters of immortality.

Graceling

By Kristin Cashore

Katsa's weary existence as a Graceling – she has the ability to kill a man with her bare hands – ends when she meets the similarly gifted Prince Po.

First Test

By Tamora Pierce

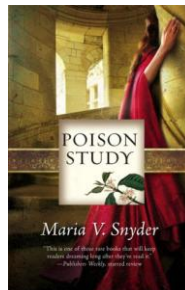

Keladry is the first girl to take advantage of the decree that allows females to enter knighthood training. But with even the training master against her, will she be able to succeed?

Slathbog's Gold

By M.L. Forman

After seeing an ad for adventurers in a shop window, a boy embarks on a perilous journey to reclaim treasure from the dragon Slathbog.

Poison Study

By Maria V. Snyder

Yelena is about to be executed for murder when she's offered the chance to become the Commander's food taster – a position that prisoners rarely hold for very long.

The Seer and the Sword

By Victoria Hanley

Through her magic crystal Princess Torina can see the future. But when she finds herself torn between loyalty to her kingdom and a close friend, how will she know what to do?
