

Psychopaths (Ages 13-18)

Bliss

By Lauren Myracle

Naïve Bliss moves to a new town hoping for friends, and falls prey to a troubled girl whose obsession with a long-ago death puts Bliss's life in danger.

The Missing Girl

By Norma Fox Mazer

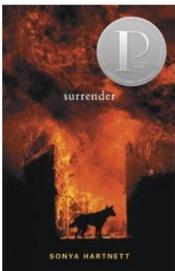

The story of five sisters who go on with their normal lives, unaware of a man watching them, or the danger he poses to their safety.

The White Darkness

By Geraldine McCaughrean

Sym, obsessed with Antarctica, is whisked off to the South Pole by her mad uncle, and must use everything she has ever learned about this unforgiving place to get back home.

Surrender

By Sonya Hartnett

Troubled Anwell forms a disturbing pact with a wild child named Finnigan, just as a series of arson attacks sweep his town.

Girl, Interrupted

By Susanna Kaysen

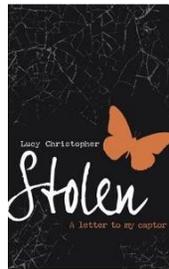

The account of a teenager's two year stay in a mental hospital during the 60s, where she tries to understand her condition, and befriends a charismatic sociopath.

Tangerine

By Edward Bloor

Paul Fisher is legally blind and lives in the shadow of his football-hero brother. But when his family moves to Tangerine, Florida, he begins to see some dark truths his family is hiding.

Stolen

By Lucy Christopher

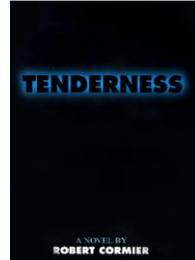

In this disturbing tale, Gemma is on a layover from Bangkok when a mysterious stranger drugs her drink and kidnaps her, taking her to the rugged Australian outback.

Blood Confession

By Alisa Libby

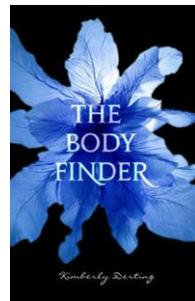

Erzsebet, a beautiful countess, recounts her descent into madness as she becomes obsessed with beauty and begins to kill her serving girls in an attempt to achieve immortality.

Tenderness

By Robert Cormier

Follows the life of eighteen year-old serial killer Eric, and the runaway Lori who finds herself drawn to him, even when she realizes the true depth of his evil nature.

The Body Finder

By Kimberly Derting

Violet Ambrose has the ability to sense dead bodies – a 'gift' both gruesome, and unbelievably important now that a serial killer is terrorizing her small town.