FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oshawa Public Libraries Now Offering Computer Appointments

Oshawa Public Libraries, July 7, 2020

Starting July 8th public computer appointments will be available for customers at our Jess Hann and Northview Branches, followed by the McLaughlin Branch on Monday, July 13th. Each computer appointment will be a maximum of 45 minutes. Printers and photocopiers will also be available by appointment only. Due to physical distancing restrictions, availability is limited.

You may book your computer appointment in person, or by calling 905-579-6111:
Jess Hann Branch - ext. 5860
Northview Branch - ext. 5871
McLaughlin Branch - ext. 5200

Before entering the Library, customers will complete a COVID-19 screening, and are required to practice safe physical distancing, proper hand hygiene, and wear a non-medical face mask or face covering while in the Library. Computer stations will be cleaned between appointments.

Please note that the Library remains closed to the public with the exception of computer appointments. If you would like to borrow from the Library, you may place holds through the catalogue on our website or call 905-579-6111 ext. 5200 and we will contact you to schedule a pick-up time through our Take-Out service.

For more information, or to use our online services including borrowing eBooks, audiobooks, movies, music or attend virtual programs, visit our website: www.oshawalibrary.on.ca.
